Implementation Tips & Tricks
The flexibility of our Employability Skills Program means you can use it to:

- Supplement current courses with soft skill development opportunities by selecting single activities from individual lessons and implementing them as time allows.
- Create week-long units of related soft skills such as “Finding a Job” (interviewing, self-confidence, networking and communication) or “There is no I in ‘team” (teamwork, flexibility, interpersonal skills, listening, problem-solving).
- Teach a complete unit on all 20 soft skills, focusing on individual lessons and emphasizing topics by incorporating all lesson activities.

Use our Employability Skills Scenario Cards to:

- Create an icebreaker activity at the start of each class by reading a scenario and having students discuss and share together.
- Generate small-group activities by instructing groups of 3-4 students to discuss key questions and points of view.
- Create journal-writing prompts by instructing students to answer key questions in writing.
- Assess students on what they’ve learned after a lesson has concluded by having them read a scenario and discuss the various viewpoints.
