Career Exploration in Education and Training

Goals

- Expose students to a variety of careers within education and training.
- Introduce students to soft skills needed for success in any career
- Engage them in scenario-based learning specific to childcare careers.

Activity #1-Soft Skills

Early Childhood Education Careers

Responsibility

Scenario: You work in a classroom with three-year-old students. Some of the children are potty trained and others still require diaper changes. For the past several months, the other person working in the room refuses to help with diaper changes. When a child needs a clean diaper, the other worker always conveniently sits down to rock a child or some other task.

Administration and Administrative Services Careers

Interpersonal Skills

Scenario: Every time one of your colleagues screens visitors to the school where you work, she refuses to make eye contact. She frequently holds her personal cell phone during interactions with visitors and has even asked visitors to wait while answering personal phone calls.

As someone who has worked in the office for a longer time frame, your supervisor has asked you to report on the employee's productivity.

Professional Services Careers

Listening

Scenario: A new speech pathologist comes to your building on Tuesdays. They were instructed to check in at the front office and provide a detailed copy of their schedule for the day. This is the second time that they have entered the building, went straight to the classroom, and requested access to a student they needed to work with.

Another conversation has been scheduled to discuss the psychologist's schedule and protocol.

Activity #5-Childcare Center Dream

Big Question: Brainstorm with your classmates. What does it take to open a childcare center?

Interview Questions: This can be done independently or as a partner activity. Imagine that you are thinking about opening your own childcare center. If you are working with a partner, use the questions to interview them. If you are working independently, interview yourself. Read each question and thoughtfully respond.

- What would you name your childcare center? And why?
- Where would it be located? (City, state, and where within the city)
- What skills do think are necessary for the successful operation of a childcare center?
- What will your expectations for the parents of the children be?
- What do you think will be the most rewarding aspects of owning a childcare center?
- What do you think some of the biggest challenges will be in owning a childcare center?
- What skills do you have that would make you a great childcare professional?
- What would your overall goal be for your childcare center?
- What goals/expectations would you have for yourself?
- What goals/expectations would you have for your staff?
- What goals/expectations would you have for the children who will attend your childcare center?
- What features and materials are most necessary for the children who will be attending your childcare center?
- What are some features and materials that might not be necessities, but would be nice to have for the children at your childcare center?
